SUBJECT: Davy case

A complaint was filed last week by James H. Lesar, a well-known FOIA lawyer from Washington D.C., on behalf of his client William A. Davy, Jr. Plaintiff is seeking all records "pertaining to and/or captioned: Project QKENCHANT and Project ZRCLIFF". Mr. Davy submitted a Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") on December 1993, and was issued a Glomar response on November 1999. The case was appealed and due to recent complaint, the case is now in litigation. Plaintiff is author of a book, Let Justice Be Done, concerning the investigation of New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.
